Keshav Prasad Maurya attacks Congress, SP over Parliament disruption

Prayagraj, Aug 13 (UNI) Uttar Pradesh Deputy Chief Minister Keshav Prasad Maurya on Thursday launched a scathing attack on the Congress, Samajwadi Party (SP), and the INDIA bloc, accusing them of disrupting proceedings in Parliament during the Monsoon Session.

Speaking to reporters here, Maurya said the people of the country had already seen the conduct of the opposition parties and claimed that their recent loss of power could eventually be followed by their removal from the opposition.

"The opposition parties have recently lost power, but their conduct will remove them from the opposition as well," he said.Maurya alleged that the opposition did not want to discuss issues concerning the public, resulting in several Bills being passed in Parliament without discussion. He said the opposition had failed to discharge its responsibilities.

The Deputy Chief Minister said the protest at Jantar Mantar had concluded peacefully, but alleged that the subsequent uproar involving Congress leader Rahul Gandhi and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav showed that the opposition wanted disruption rather than debate in the House.

Reacting to the SP's allegation that the government was acting with bias against senior party leader Mohammad Azam Khan, Maurya said the government was not taking retaliatory action against anyone.

He said anyone who believed they had been wronged or treated unfairly could approach the courts. Even if a court found someone guilty, he added, the government was not afraid of such allegations.

Maurya also hit back at senior SP leader Shivpal Singh Yadav's statement that if the SP forms the government in 2027, Akhilesh Yadav would become Chief Minister and Azam Khan would be appointed Home Minister.

The Deputy Chief Minister said Azam Khan is a convicted person and hence ineligible to contest elections. He also questioned the SP's political approach, alleging that the party's government had attempted to withdraw cases against members of the Students' Islamic Movement of India (SIMI).

He claimed that the Allahabad High Court had prevented the withdrawal of those cases, after which trials were conducted and several accused were convicted.

"The Samajwadi Party's character is such that it withdraws cases against the nation's enemies for vote-bank gains," Maurya alleged. He further accused the party of promising to appoint Azam Khan as Home Minister to consolidate Muslim votes.

On Congress leader Pawan Khera's alleged objectionable remarks against Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Maurya said a person's language reflected their upbringing. He alleged that Congress leaders had repeatedly abused the Prime Minister, while Modi had chosen not to respond.

"The people of the country will respond by pressing the EVM button," he said, adding that voters had already removed the Congress from power and would now remove it from the opposition as well.

On reports of a purification ritual being conducted after Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge's rally in Haldwani in Uttarakhand's Nainital district, Maurya said he was not aware of the matter.

"But this is not our thinking. We advocate for everyone's support, everyone's development, everyone's respect, and everyone's place," he said.

Teej festival celebrated with traditional fervor in Patiala

Patiala, Aug 13 (UNI) The festival of Teej was celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy by women officers of the department, alongside the spouses of Punjab State Power Corporation Ltd. (PSPCL) officers, at the Officers' Club in Patiala.

On this occasion, the attendees shared the happiness of Teej, adorned in traditional Punjabi attire and cultural colors.

During the event at the Power Colony, the women enjoyed traditional Punjabi folk songs, Giddha (traditional dance), and various other entertainment activities. The traditional outfits and vibrant decorations further added color to the celebrations. The gathering provided an opportunity for everyone to foster mutual affection, community harmony, and relive memories associated with Punjab's rich cultural heritage.

Sharing their joy on the occasion, the women present expressed that Teej is an integral festival of Punjabi culture. It offers women a platform to come together, celebrate, and stay connected with their rich cultural roots. At the conclusion of the event, while exchanging festive greetings, they conveyed a message emphasizing the preservation of Punjabi culture and heritage.

CM Sukhu reviews progress of Himachal Niketan building

Shimla, August 13 (UNI) Himachal Pradesh Chief Minister Thakur Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu today visited Himachal Niketan at Dwarka in New Delhi and reviewed the progress of the building, which is nearing completion.

The Chief Minister took detailed stock of the ongoing construction work and directed the concerned officials to complete the remaining finishing works within the stipulated timeframe so that the facility could be dedicated to the people of Himachal Pradesh at the earliest.

Sukhu said Himachal Niketan would provide comfortable and quality accommodation to people from the state visiting the national capital, particularly those coming for medical treatment and educational purposes.

He said the facility would offer almost four-star category amenities and serve as an important support system for Himachalis visiting Delhi.

Built at an estimated cost of around Rs 190 crore, Himachal Niketan will have 107 rooms, besides a restaurant, banquet hall, two multipurpose halls, a meeting hall and student dormitories.

The facility will also have adequate parking space, landscaped gardens, EV charging stations and other modern amenities.

BJP's promise to give Rs 20,000 to women is new gimmick: Akhilesh Yadav

Lucknow, Aug 13 (UNI) Samajwadi Party (SP) national president Akhilesh Yadav, targeting the BJP, said that another gimmick of the BJP is to give Rs 20,000 to the women of Uttar Pradesh.

He issued a statement here on Thursday saying that the BJP has nothing left to win elections except money. This too is the BJP's ill-gotten gains, which the religious women of Uttar Pradesh will never accept.

Akhilesh Yadav said that conscious women of UP are asking why, in other states where the BJP won elections by announcing money to women, on one hand, there is reluctance to give the money and on the other hand, women are being asked to return the money. Women who are unable to return the money are facing condemnable action in police stations, courts, and lawsuits.

He said that the Rs 50,000 annually that the BJP government is talking about today could have been given in the last 10 years, but it wasn't. The Chief Minister spent thousands of crores of rupees meant for the rights and entitlements of women in Uttar Pradesh on his own publicity and ignored them.

The SP President said that at the rate of Rs 50,000 annually, the corrupt BJP government has siphoned off aRs five lakh 0meant for women in the last 10 years and is now offering only Rs 20,000.He said that even if the BJP's 15 lakh rupees promised and Rs 20,000 are given to appear to be contesting elections, the BJP government still owes the public 4.80 lakh rupees.

Akhilesh Yadav said that due to fear of public anger, BJP leaders, associates, workers, supporters, and even flag bearers have gone underground. No one even wants to accept a BJP ticket anymore. After the temple theft and the attack on children, the BJP has neither morality nor courage left. That is why it is now resorting to money.
